

ORA Singers Graduate Composers Terms and Conditions

Summary

ORA Singers' Graduate Composers' programme is open to those who have graduated from higher education no more than three years before the programme takes place, offering commissions to five Graduate Composers.

The five Graduate Composers will be chosen by an ORA Singers Selection Committee, who will then initiate enrollment onto the scheme.

Upon acceptance onto the programme, each Graduate Composer will be officially commissioned by ORA Singers to write a brand new choral work, lasting no longer than 4 minutes. Each Graduate Composer will receive a £1,000.00 commission fee, and is guaranteed a premiere of their piece at the Graduate Composers Showcase, to be held at the Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama in Cardiff on 28 September 2024. Each Graduate Composer will receive a video recording of their work to help build their professional portfolio. In addition, each Graduate Composer will be given opportunities to receive guidance and consultation from ORA Singers' Artistic Director, Suzi Digby.

The successful applicants will be contacted in February 2024, at which stage they will be asked to confirm their participation in the scheme by completing a Registration Form. Any applicant who does not complete the Registration Form will not be able to take part in the programme and a replacement applicant will be contacted. The five Graduate Composers' names will be published on the ORA Singers' website and announced on its social media channels.
